

College Park Aging in Place

College Park Aging in Place

is a construction-based program aimed at addressing health and safety related repairs and accessibility modifications in homes.

Household Size	Maximum Income
1	$66,750
2	$76,250
3	$85,800
4	$95,300
5	$102,950
6	$110,550
7	$118,200
8+	$125,800

Eligible Services

- Roof repair or replacement
- Water heater replacement
- Zero step entry solutions
- Porch repair or replacement
- Major and minor plumbing repairs
- Minor electrical repairs
- Accessibility modifications
- Occupational therapist-customized plan

Program Eligibility

- Be willing to partner with HFHMM by upholding the terms of the agreement as well as being responsive and helpful.
- Be willing to sign an affidavit stating the intent to occupy the home for at least 5 years after the completion of work.
- Be a City of College Park homeowner
- Be an individual of 62 years or older
- Have current homeowners' insurance.

If you're interested in receiving an application, please either complete an inquiry on our website, www.habitatmm.org, or return this flyer to the following address with the below fields completed:

Mail To: Habitat for Humanity Metro Maryland

Attn: Repair Client Coordinator

8380 Colesville Rd., Suite 700

Silver Spring, MD 20910

Name: _____

Mailing Address: _____

Email Address: _____

Phone Number: _____

Program(s) of Interest: _____

(Optional) Are you or is someone in your household a veteran? Y N

(Optional) Are you or is someone in your household a senior 65+? Y N

(Optional) Are you or someone in your household disabled? Y N

Homeowner in Prince George's County or Montgomery County? Y N