

A PROCLAMATION OF THE
CITY OF COLLEGE PARK, MARYLAND
HONORING THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF ELIZABETH CAMPBELL ADAMS

- WHEREAS, Elizabeth Campbell Adams was a cherished member of the Lakeland community, whose life embodied the values of service, compassion, and unwavering dedication to her family, neighbors and community; and
- WHEREAS, Elizabeth Campbell Adams devoted her life to uplifting others, whether through her involvement in the Lakeland Civic Association, her card ministry, or her tireless support of church and cultural initiatives that enriched the lives of so many; and
- WHEREAS, Elizabeth Campbell Adams played an instrumental role in preserving the unique character and history of Lakeland, ensuring that its stories and traditions are passed down to future generations with respect and care; and
- WHEREAS, Elizabeth Campbell Adams' legacy continues to inspire countless individuals to live lives of purpose and service, reminding us all of the impact that one dedicated person can have on an entire community; and
- WHEREAS, the Lakeland Civic Association mourns the loss of Elizabeth Campbell Adams while celebrating her many contributions, which will remain an enduring part of our community's fabric.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED that the Mayor and Council of the City of College Park join the Lakeland Civic Association in proclaiming our deep gratitude and respect for the life and legacy of Elizabeth Campbell Adams, and we encourage all members of our community to honor her memory by continuing her work of fostering unity, service, and compassion.

PROCLAIMED THIS 14th day of January , 2025.

Fazlul Kabir, Mayor
City of College Park, Maryland